- 1. The Rondo (Possession and Pressing Drill)

Objective: Improve quick passing, ball control under pressure, and pressing strategy.

Setup: Create a circle with 5-8 players inside. The remaining players act as defenders or interceptors. The players inside the circle pass the ball among themselves, maintaining possession. The defenders aim to intercept or win back possession.

Execution: Limit the number of touches (e.g., two-touch passing). Emphasize quick decision-making and movement off the ball. Incorporate pressing by instructing defenders to apply pressure immediately after a set number of passes.

Benefits: Enhances technical skills under pressure. Reinforces pressing and defensive coordination. Develops quick thinking and team shape.

Setup: Divide players into attackers and defenders. Mark a playing area with cones representing different zones. Place a target player or goal at one end.

Execution: Attackers attempt to break through the defensive setup and score. Upon losing possession or after a shot, defenders transition quickly to organize defensive shape. Attackers then switch roles.
